Superhero Song

Imagine that you are a superhero. A real superhero.

What powers would you have? Would you be able to fly like Superman, or would you be able to travel really fast like The Flash?

Assuming that you would use your powers for good, what kinds of things could you help with?

Think about the cool gadgets you might have to help you do your job – would you have a fast car to help you get around, like Batman, or would you have a special suit like Iron Man?

Most importantly, we need a name for your superhero – don't forget that part!

Now that you have your superhero alter ego, can you draw a picture of them? Remember to include the superhero name on the picture for everyone to see!

On the next page, we have started a song about being a superhero and we'd love it if you could help us to finish it. You can make it rhyme if you want, but you don't need to.

Once you have completed your superhero song, get an adult to help you share it with us – you might send us a photo of the lyrics, or you might decide to read them out loud for us, like a rap star! We would love to see your superhero pictures too! By sharing, you are giving us your permission to share on our website and social media.

Here's a fun song for you to help us complete. Fill in the last line to each verse – you can make it rhyme or not.

A superhero I am

I save people and keep the world calm

My super powers are fab,

I can

I use my power for good

Surely anyone would

Give me a shout and I'll be about

And help you to

I went to the park yesterday

And out in the sun I lay

I opened my eyes and to my surprise

..... (choose a situation a super hero might be needed in)

But being a hero is tough

People expect all this stuff

Sometimes I want a day off

So I can
